

Newsletter – August 2015

Thanks to all ropers who attended Finals 2015! The roping market place is tougher than ever and we want you all to know how much we appreciate your support. Along with our sponsors, we were once again able to award a large prize line including a truck, trailers, saddles, buckles and more. Even if the prize was a simple cap or t-shirt, each roper that placed in any roping received something along with their prize money.

Sincere congratulations go out to all the winners...full result details will be included in next month's issue of DT (and will be posted on the web site soon!).

By a slim margin of 1 point, Trevor Peterson was the high point Truck Winner. A couple of other ropers were still in the hunt through the last roping, so the battle was a good one up to the very end. Beginner Graduate Buckles were earned by Rey Rey Ruiz, Bart Sirman, Ronnie Roy Sellers and Will Haley. Lindsey Braddock won first place with partner Glover Womack and Lindsey topped the All-Girl roping, taking home the high point saddle in her event. The short round for the #1.0 roping was full of action and suspense; from 6th call back, Doug Dunkel and Jami Kosse ended up in first place with trophy trailers to prove their perseverance! Cliff Dent and Tom Monroe were the 3.0/80 Mixed first place saddle winners and the first place Century Buckle winners were Troy Walker and Benny Kilpatrick. The #1.5 short round was a bit stronger, and after a troubled run by first high call, the second call back team capitalized on the advantage and was able to stay just ahead of the next team in line, making Kendra Conley and Gary Jacobs the trailer winners of the #1.5. Colby Thrash and Roy Payne held on to their first high call back spot in the #2.0 roping and took home the trophy trailers in that category. Teenage youthfulness combined with experienced consistency made Jayden Shearer and Trevor Peterson the first place saddle winners in the #2.5 roping.

Clay Haigood and Josh McPherson won the #3.5; Twister Brown and Cody Guess took the #4.5 and Brett Stuart with Justin Copp won the Open!

Way to go ropers!! We are proud of you all!

All our best to all of you,
